

MINISTRY UPDATE

MARCH 2019

Dear friends and ministry partners,

It has been a very busy few months, and we are so thrilled with what God is doing here in Ireland. We thank God for you all and your faithful prayers for us.

Emily is nineteen weeks pregnant with the newest addition to our family, Noah. He is healthy and strong, and we appreciate your prayers for him. Emily is also feeling a little better than she was in our last letter, so your prayers are working! Keep it up!

We are excited to tell you that Emer has recently completed her discipleship with Emily! We celebrated her achievement this past Sunday. To top it off, she has already begun discipling another teenager! Please keep this sweet young woman in your prayers.

John has also been busy discipling two young men who were saved at teen camp. Aaron and William are dedicated to following the Lord and have been sharing their faith with anyone who will listen. Please pray for them as they continue to grow in the Lord.

Our Sunday night teen Bible studies have been focused on sharing our faith, and they have definitely been challenging our teens to cultivate a burden for the lost, work through their fears, and share the Gospel with everyone that they can. Each week they have "homework" that requires them to start conversations with others and try to engage them in a spiritual conversation. They are really doing some serious kingdom work here in Mallow.

As always, thank you so much for your prayers and support for our ministry. And if you ever want to get in touch with us, we would love to hear from you. God bless you all!
