

THE KING'S KATCHUP

To "catch you up" on the Gospel work of Jim and Pat King

Dear Ones in the Lord,

In this last prayer letter of 2019, we want to express our love and appreciation to those who have made our ministry possible.

God. It was He who saved a drunk sailor on August 21st, 1960, when he believed on His Son Jesus Christ. It all began with God's grace!

Dr. Hugh Pyle. Jim praises the Lord that when Jesus saved him, He put him in Central Baptist Church, where Dr. Pyle was pastor at that time. Pastor Pyle was not only a good preacher, but a good Christian with a great testimony. His godly influence continues with us until this very day.

Pasor Cleber Rodarte Neves.

Seen here with his wife and daughter, we worked out of his church in Brazil. He is the editor of our paper for preachers, now in its 29th year.

Eulála Kregness.

She is our translator. She is Brazilian, married to an American missionary. She translates articles from English to Portuguese for our books and paper. Pray for her healing; she often works while having constant pain. Her doctors are trying to find the correct treatment for her condition. She is an important part of our work.

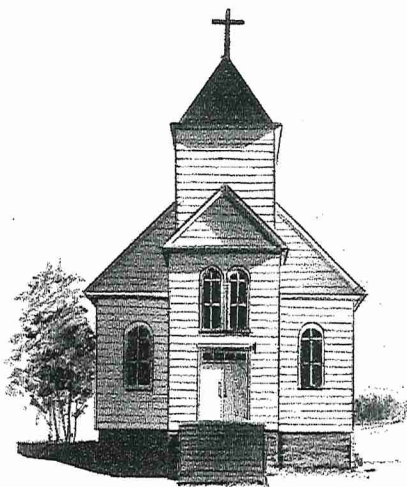

Jeremy Tyler. This is the missionary brother who puts our paper and messages on the Internet. He needs your prayers also. He fell through the roof of his church building recently and suffered some broken bones. Pray for his healing as he looks to get back to his ministry soon.

Our supporting churches and individuals. Yes, where would we be without you? We always remember that we could not do what we do, unless you do what you do. We lost a number of supporting churches when we returned from Brazil but you have remained faithful and we thank you so much for your financial support as well as your prayers that keep us going.

We are doing pretty good at this time. Jim did have a couple of hospital stays due to diabetes complications but is much better now. One prayer request for him is that his legs will hold up as they hurt when he has to walk a lot. We praise God for Pat's good health.

And so, Thanksgiving has come and gone. But we remember, and continue to be thankful for, those of you who make our work for the Lord possible. The work with the men and women in the county jails continues to do well as well as the ministry in the rescue mission.

Sincerely in CHRIST,
The Kings

Jim & Pat
