December—such a fun month. It was extra fun with a two year old! Our names were changed to Dreampa and Dreamma for 3 precious weeks! It was fun having Thomas, Marci, little Margaret with us. They even brought one of our cheerleaders, Thomas' Mom, Barbara. In spite of being in paid due to major dental work, she didn't let it stop her. She has such a good attitude. She's even more Thai than my kids since she had bone from a Thai grafted into her jaw!

Nakhon Nayok and Don Dong Baptist church both had unsaved visitors come for Christmas. Most were adults too. And one couple looking for Baptist Church on their way home to Bangkok from running a marathon, found us and encouraged us greatly.

The New Year started off with us setting up an office off the mountain in order to fulfill laws for the association to own the land. The paper are right now being typed up by our lawyer. When they are submitted...we wait more. The office is right next door to where the boys go to school. Perfect for outreach using English and serving coffee to parents waiting on kids to get out of school.

Tim is getting ready to be in the States for about 4 months. God opened the door for about 5 meetings so far and he is willing for more. We need to raise support. With two churches and the home...we are strung tight. There is also a possibility to help in opening another work close to Ayuttya.

Me??? Make breakfast, get Roon's food to her, eat breakfast, drink your coffee, drink my coffee, are the chickens done? Are the fish happy when you feed them? Get me 5 eggs please. Iron shirts, get the boys to school. Come home start laundry, sweep kitchen, begin lunch and then begin supper. In between, sit down with my Bible? Feed Roon, do more laundry, clean bathrooms, check boys room, get boys from school, finish supper, finish clothes, get boys on English, on ukulele, wash dishes, do paperwork, get showers....Bed.

This is just my schedule. With Tim going to be gone, I also need to, check on workers, paying bills, studying for SS lesson check on church in Nakhon Nayok. Not to mention the boys will be out of school mid March to mid May.

We really thank you for seeing us through this past year. If you wish to contact Tim, he will have his skype number hooked up. 602-904-5194

Please, please continue to pray for us.....
