

KING'S KATCHUP

To "catch you up" on the Gospel work of Jim and Pat King

Dear Partners in the Lord's work,

As we do this edition of our letter we are still not allowed to do our studies in the jails or in the mission. They want to be sure that no one takes the corona virus into the jails. We trust that things will return to normal very soon. So this time we share some pictures of our past work for the Lord Jesus. A big THANK YOU for your loyal support in prayer and offerings.

Brazil, the country of our calling. Jaboticaba, its flowers and fruits grow directly out of its trunk.

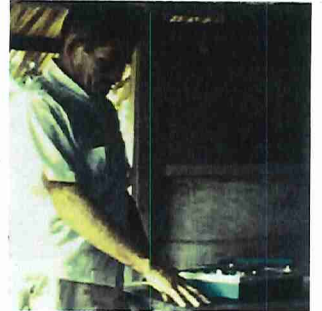

Big coffee country.

Getting a new street in front of our house.

Newly arrived in 1969.

New convert using record to witness.

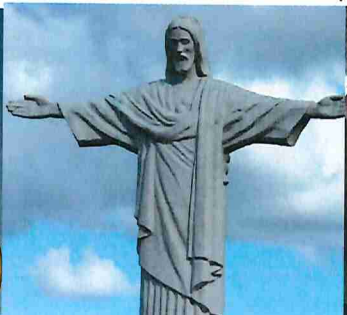

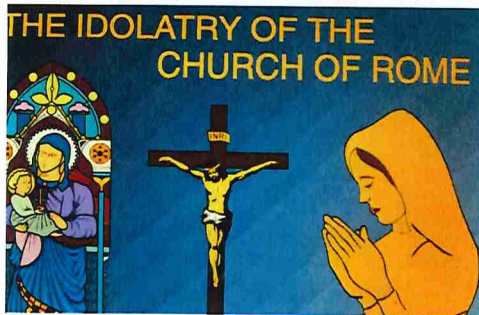

54 kids hearing the Word in our tiny living room.

Teaching began before we learned portuguese.

Our first passport picture in 1969.

Campo Belo, the town of our calling. Minas Gerais, our state, is one of the most Catholic in Brazil.

Campo Belo

The outside and inside of our Campo Belo church.

Our house when we lived among the Jaminaua indians.

Jaminaua men.

Our two oldest with two Jaminauas.

The firstfruits among the Indians.

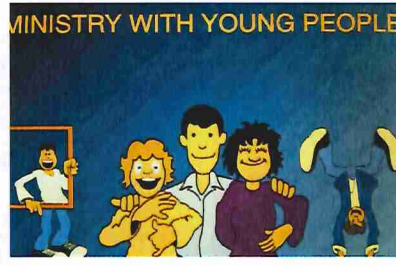

MISSIONS
at home
& abroad

Congregation in Aquanil, started in back yard. Using Christian films to evangelize kids in that backward town.

We were the first baptist work in Aquanil. Some heartaches; The young man in green standing near the window committed suicide. Hot dogs for the kids.

Aquanil Christmas program. Five good reasons to support missions.

Hanging out at the missionary's house. Answer a question; win a candy bar. The kids taught to accept Christ and to be good citizens.

Most of these had never heard the true gospel. The Good News Camp, ministry of our church in Campo Belo.

Camp, time of sweet fellowship. The Jail Ministry of our church here in Florida.
